Orcasound is an interactive publication by and for our city's community. We invite our readers to dive in, enjoy, and most of all, participate in this unique and refreshing snapshot of what makes life in our city so special. We like to make the most of our leisure time and this zine and posterzine's primary purpose is to guide you in your quest for fun.

Each edition will focus solely on the positive aspects of our city's pulse. Movies, CD's, restaurants, clubs, hotels, dating, live music, and fashion trends will be emphasized. Interviews with local and visiting celebrities, will also be covered.

Unlike any other publication available today, Orcasound is circulated through e-mail, the worldwide web and in print. This free publication is distributed to a wide range of companies, schools and merchants throughout Northeastern Canada and the United States. We estimate a readership of well over 250,000. Our interactive format will singles with a great way to network with other singles at special events that will focus on building new friendships or forming romantic connections.

:Advertising in Orcasound is a great idea for many reasons:

These include:
